PERSISTING

INNER VISION

74

B. Smith

1/02 Bow

The death of Mrs. Rosann Levine on October 1, 1973, created an immeasurable void in the Pershing faculty. Mrs. Levine loved Pershing dearly and devoted her twenty years of teaching at our school to the educational enrichment of her students.

As school representative of the Detroit Federation of Teachers, she worked diligently to improve employment conditions for Pershing teachers. Her sincere interest in our school and community was evident in her efforts to broaden the educational experience of the entire student body.

We will never forget Mrs. Levine's love of life, her thirst for knowledge, and her great compassion for the underprivileged; but most of all, we will remember her unselfish dedication and untiring service to Pershing High School.

MRS. LEVINE

MR. HOWARD

The loss of Mr. Al Howard of the Science Department was a sudden shock to both students and faculty at Pershing High School. Mr. Howard had an easy way of presenting his course material that students found helpful and in complete keeping with his pleasant personality. His colleagues remember his easy-going manner and his deep interest in his students.

Pershing Library is dedicating a section in the school library, in loving memory of Mrs. Rosann Levine, who passed away last semester. Mrs. Levine's memory will live in Pershing for years to come.

In Memory of . . .
People Who Were Loved.

PERSHING

The '74 Pershing Parade based this year's theme on 'Inner-Visions', which are ways of looking back on memories made at Pershing.

As seniors journey through these pages, memories of happy, carefree days of the past will be present.

Many happy memories have been spent at Pershing High. Long live these memories — for the yearbook is a memory in itself.

The staff of the Pershing Yearbook is basing this year's Parade theme on "Inner-Visions" of the past year.

Looking back on the school year is always a pleasure for graduates, particularly in later years,

Memories of the past year are good ones, although the September semester got off to a late start.

When the semester finally began in full fling, students doing their thing — dances, games, and various special activities occupied the students' time.

Although the economic picture for the seniors is not as promising as usual at this time, most Pershing seniors are facing the future with definite plans in mind.

Many of the students plan to further their education going to college or finishing school. Some of the students will pursue a career. It is the staff's hope that this graduating class will be successful in all they do, — Best wishes for Your future!

By Jackie Murdock

With the changing of the semester and the February graduation, the Parade staff "Lost a few of its members."

As times change, people change; and as they leave, new happenings occur.

Because of the semester change, the staff obtained a few new members whose names are listed below.

These students helped to put the 1974 yearbook "to bed." Because of them, the 1975 yearbook will be a big success.

'73

The Pershing Football Team came through with a record of 4-3 after a disappointing start. The team was put under a strain because of the long season, but they stayed together and the ball finally began to bounce their way. We thank Mr. Gorence and the team for a winning season.

P.S. Let's do even better next year!

Track '74.'

The Doughboys' Track Team put on their mercury winged shoes, and sailed like Apollo through their season. They competed in such heated events as the 220 yard dash and the mile run, in conquest of a city championship. The outcome of the season has not yet been determined as we write this small tribute to them. Hopefully our Doughboys will refuse defeat until they achieve their true goal as the P.S.L.'s number one track team. Good luck Doughboys, and, whatever the outcome, we stand behind you!

Cross Country "73"

Ella Willis

This year Pershings Cross Country Team was the first P.S.L. team to include a female runner. Ella Willis, along with the rest of the team brought victories to the school.

TOP: J. Curenton. LEFT: R. Slaughter. RIGHT: R. Danson.

Girls' Field Hockey Golf

To the surprise of many students, Pershing really does have a girls' golf team. The season was cut by the teachers strike, but as you can see in the picture, the spirit was still present. If things go as scheduled, there will be a golf team next year, and Miss Reinecker is hoping that more people will recognize Pershing's girls' golf team.

One of the Spring sports at Pershing is field hockey. It's a girls sport, and the girls are good at it.

Even when the field is muddy, the girls are out there with their hockey sticks and sneakers practicing their way to a victorious season under the coaching of Miss May.

So when you hear the strange chant "ground, stick, ground, stick, ground, stick" and then clattering of wood, you can be almost positive that Miss May and the field hockey team are out there tearing the opponents to shreads.

Girl's City Swim Meet

This year Pershing entered five of their swimmers in the city swim meet. The 100 yrd. nedley relay with V. Fort, C. Dery, R. Koss and L. Kaminski placed fourth. The 200 yard freestyle relay with L. Koss, V. Fort, L. Kaminski, and R. Koss also placed fourth. Verona Fort was the first girl from Pershing to win a city stripe in swimming. Pershing placed 6th out of 17 schools. Congratulations girls!

With only one week of practice, and three meets a week, the Doughgirls came through with a 5-3 record. This year's losses were to Finney, whom the girls met twice, and to Denby. The girls put up a good fight, and Mrs. Bruechert is proud of them.

Swimming in December sounds like precarious fun, but Pershing's Tankers ran their season from that date, under the coaching of Norman Young. With a tough schedule the team is building and looking forward to the future.

The Doughboy's put up a lively exhibition of skill, talent, and grace this season. They have given it all they have so far this year and are still looking forward to defeating Kettering and taking the Northeast Division title and also the City title. We wish them luck in accomplishing this task, as the yearbook will be printed before the news of this hopeful victory will be presented to us. Good Luck Doughboy's!!!

Due to the late start of the 1973-74 school year, many of the fall sports did not take place. One of which was boys' golf.

Boys' Baseball

The Doughboys got off to a swinging start this season as they took their bats and unmercifully pounded their opponents on their way to numerous victories. Coach Gorence and his disciples of the diamond have given our school everything they have so far. They are hopeful of a city championship and a state title at this stage. Even though the season hasn't been completed yet, we stand behind our team, win or lose. We take our "bats" off to the Pershing High School Baseball team.

Swinging Sluggers: Fred Posavetz and Marvin Forman.

Ten Girls

Mrs. Hatcher, the coach of this sport of grace and speed, keeps the girls tennis team on their toes with her ladder system of rank.

Many long-lasting Pershing matches have taken place at Farwell Field, not to mention the meets at other schools' courts . . . and whether they win or lose, because of the combined effort and coordination Pershing's girls' tennis team always emerges with the spirit of triumph.

"We gotta win this one . . ."

"Tennis . . . Anyone?"

NIS Boys

Strike one?

"Heel toe, heel, toe,
this has got to be a new dance."

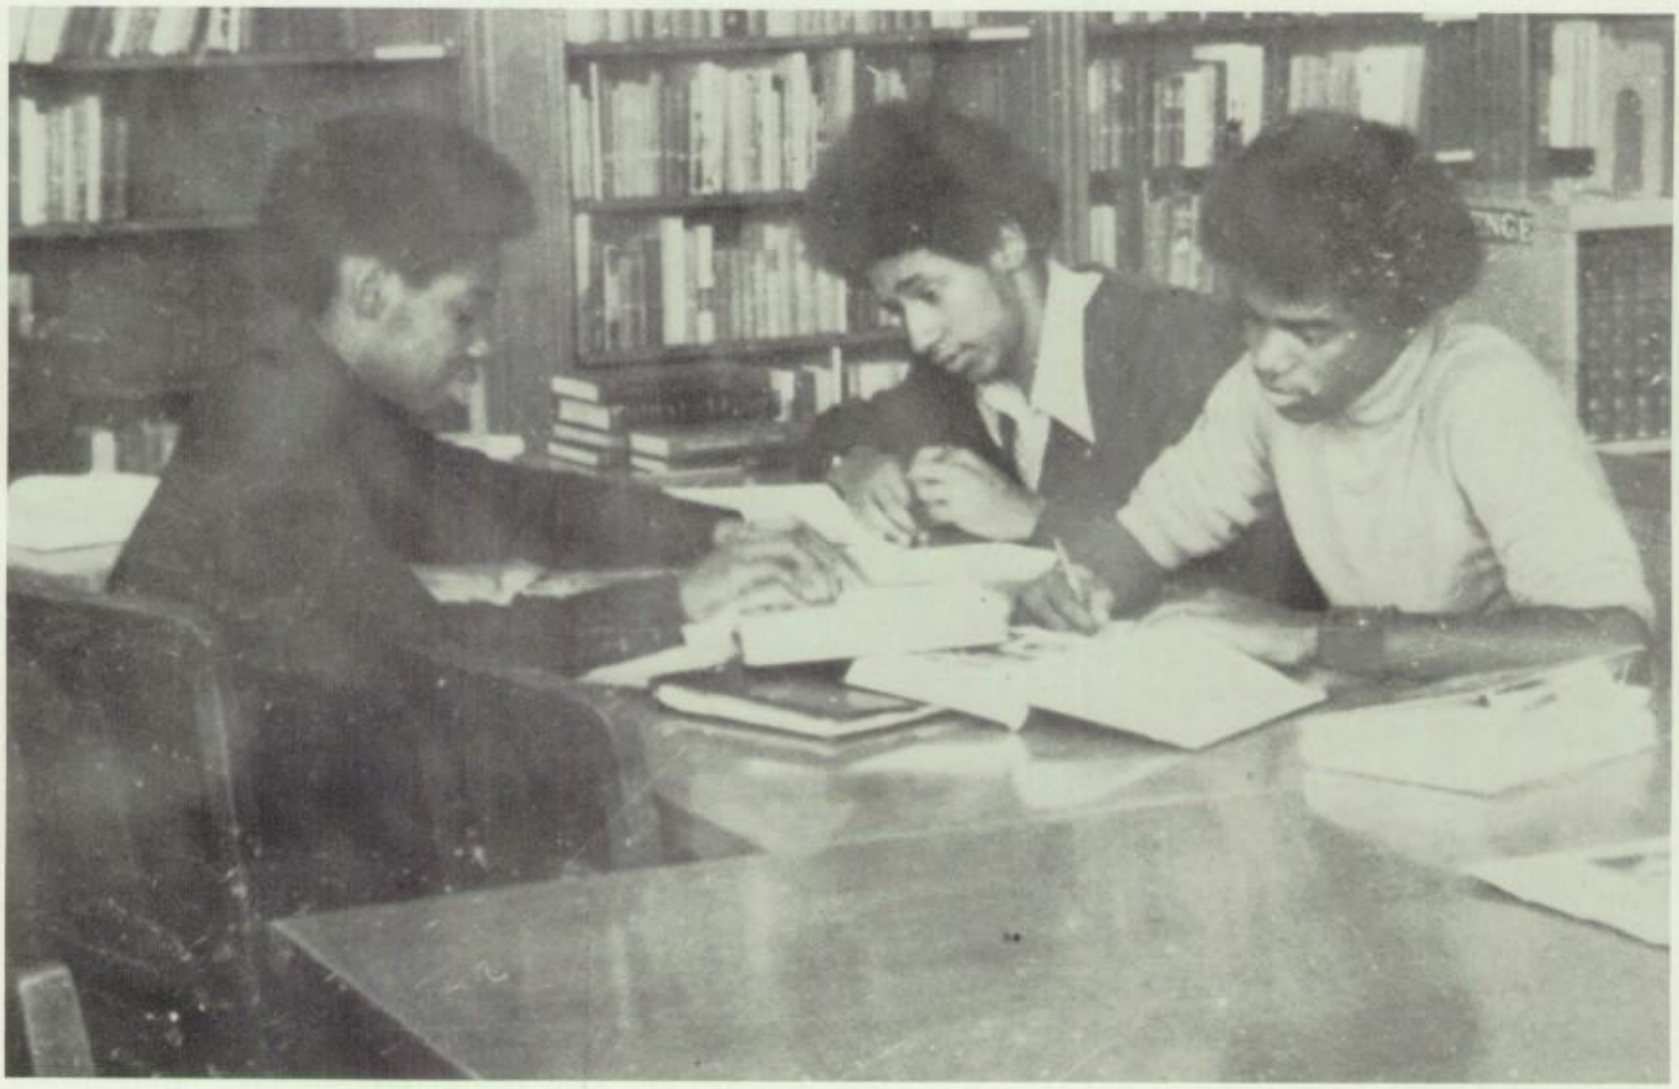
ORGANIZATIONS



Pershing has a variety of organizations which its students may join. There are hard-working and easy-going clubs, where students benefit for themselves or help others. In either case, these organizations are pleasurable and meaningful for the student body at Pershing.

Future Homemakers

The right ingredients takes time.

Cooking isn't only for girls.

Trying to get it together.

Did you ever walk into room 211, and wonder what you were getting into? The aroma in the room makes you forget about everything else, and think of Food! The commercial food's students learn to prepare and serve meals, desserts and snacks. The girls in the sewing classes, sew their own fads-"N"—fashions. You could say, "doing their own thing!"

If you have the voice and the will to memorize songs, try singing. Who knows you may like it. The ensemble sings at special events, directed by Mr. Harris.

Creative writing gives the idea of writing poetry, short stories, reading and writing plays. Although the course does consist of writing, writing isn't all there is. There is also typing, artistic work, photography, and a whole lot of imatination.

This is the class that makes the school yearbook. The supervisor is Mr. Carmicheal.

Hard work — That's what puts together our paper.

Enjoy writing but think your work isn't what it should be? Well, if every writer felt that way, where would we be? Whether you're a good or bad writer, you will always find something to do in 204A. Photography, paper layouts, IBM typing, darkroom techniques, and many other assignments are needed on any publications staff. Journalism is excellent training for a future in public media after graduation.

Pershing's band is believed the best around. It's a proud thing to see them perform in concerts as well as parades, representing our school. They work very hard to bring us all kinds of musical pleasure from classic to rock. A great deal of tribute should go to Mr. Rogers for making our band a treasured one.

Graduation

When the row in front of us sits
  We stand up
And wind single file for our diplomas.
  And when my name was read
And mispronounced
  I recall my years of high school;
How my thoughts were carefully laundered
  And neatly pressed
And how nice if felt
  For my mind to slip smoothly between them
And fall asleep.

Running Our School, From the Inside

LIPNICKI KRIEG LOUIS
Chief Engineer

The engineers try and keep our school as warm as possible, but due to this year's oil shortage this job is difficult.

A lonely job, not at all. Working in the bookstore is an interesting job. She's not as lonely as she looks, so as the bell rings for class change, she'll be so busy she'll forget that she was alone.

The lunchroom workers work hard at producing a well-balanced meal each day, for those students with a lunch hour.

LIBRARY STAFF — Where would our library staff be without them. Do you realize what a mess it would be to find a book if someone didn't put them in order for us.

They Keep the Office on Its Toes

It's only ingestion.

Linda Medlock, Gloria Webster and Mary Dedenbach.

These girls in the office do a lot of work in the organization of the school. They answer the busy phone, which rings constantly. They type, and take care of mail, which is coming in and going out of the school. They help keep the office running as smoothly as possible, doing various other jobs along with what has already been stated.

"Hello, who is this?"

"I can't repeat what I just said."

Keeping the halls of our school in running order is left up to those women who are always saying "LET'S SEE YOUR I. D. CARD," "DO YOU HAVE A PASS?" "OK!, GET TO CLASS."

Without these women in our halls it would be one BIG mess. Outsiders would run our school. We wouldn't have quiet halls during classes. Thank you for your good work girls.

"But Madam, I don't have a pass."

"Let's have those I. D. cards out!"

The English Department at Pershing works hard in their field to help students obtain the most in English Literature and grammar.

The English language is a necessity in high school, for we must achieve knowledge of its history to be able to read and write correctly. Pershing has a fine staff of teachers who are willing to assist the students. Get it together and do good in English "cuz" that's a subject that will be useful for the rest of your life.

The Business Department at Pershing is broken up into two sections — office education and distributive education classes.

In office education classes, students learn the basics of office procedures. Examples are, typing, filing, and bookkeeping. Distributive education students learn the trade of retailing and how to become a good salesperson.

Both courses hold candysales, and have a co-op plan where they help students get a job, for a working/learning experience.

Sooner or later, everyone has to make big decisions. With the help of our faculty, the seniors of '74 will be able to make these important decisions that will help the seniors get ready for further education, or to go out into the world and defeat any challenges.

The Yearbook is one big "Farewell," it's a beautiful way of saying, "I'll never forget the time" . . . "I'm really gonna miss" . . . "Do you remember when" . . . "I'll be glad when I get out of school."

Now old seniors are saying, "Wish we were back at Pershing, those happy, carefree days of high school." Some of the seniors will return to visit their old memories of walking down crowded halls, talking to friends between classes, or studying hard to meet average grades.

These are the happiest memories — "Farewell Seniors"
